

CASE STUDY
SOUTHEND-ON-SEA

RESTAURANT CONVERSION INTO APARTMENTS

Aticos AGS Ltd was instructed to remove the existing historical stainless steel curtain wall bay window system and install a new uPVC solution encompassing acoustic glazed units. This was undertaken to the front and side of the building and included French Doors opening onto external balconies.

In addition to this requirement additional windows and doors were installed to the rear of the building and upper floors.

